

Maple cheesecake

Cheesecake hardly needs an introduction. Throw in maple syrup and you have a sure-fire crowd-pleaser here. Just be sure to use proper maple syrup — we're partial to product from Ontario or Quebec, but as long as it's actual maple, you'll be fine.

Maple caramel sauce

Ingredients

- 2 cups maple sugar
- 2 cups 35% cream

Instructions

Step 1

Melt a little of the sugar in a pot on high heat, constantly stirring. When the sugar starts to turn brown, add a little more. Continue until all the sugar is caramelized.

Step 2

Carefully add the cream bit by bit, stirring. Be careful not to burn yourself as it will steam a lot. Bring back to a boil to dissolve all the sugar. Cool down and serve. If too thick when cold, just add more cream until desired consistency is reached.
